

ANGEL TRANS LLC DBA ATA AMBULANCE

Non-Emergency Medical Transportation
Sacramento, California

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Updated June 2026

Owner	Angela Silayo
Phone	(916) 613-5469
Fax	(916) 568-9433
Email	angeltrans07@gmail.com
Address	1333 Howe Ave, #201, Sacramento, CA 95825
HR	hr@angeltrans.com (916) 259-3249
Operations	operations@angeltrans.com (916) 259-3285

Table of Contents

Company Information & Essential Legal Provisions.....
Introductory Statement.....
Employment At-Will.....
Ethics Code.....
Integration Clause and the Right to Revise.....
Equal Employment Opportunity
Sexual and Other Harassment.....
Additional Employment Policies and Practices
New Hires and Introductory Periods.....
Employment Authorization Verification.....
Regular Full-Time Employees
Regular Part-Time Employees
Temporary Employees
Overtime for Non-Exempt Employees.....
Exempt Employees
Day of Rest
Job Duties / Job Descriptions.....
Work Schedules
On-Call Shift.....
Recording Time.....
Paycheck Deductions.....
Meal and Rest Periods.....
Lactation Accommodation
Disability Accommodation
Payment of Wages.....
Personnel Records.....
Whistleblower Policy
Open Door Policy
Conflicts of Interest
Reductions in Force
Involuntary Termination.....
Voluntary Separation.....
Standards of Conduct
Prohibited Conduct.....
Off-Duty Conduct
Drug and Alcohol Abuse
Punctuality and Attendance
Dress Code, Grooming, and Personal Standards
Nonsolicitation / Nondistribution Policy
Client and Patient Relations.....
Confidentiality and Nondisclosure of Trade Secrets.....
HIPAA Requirements
News Media Contacts
Operations Policies.....
Company and Employee Property
Personal Cell Phones / Mobile Devices
Social Media Policy
Off-Duty Use of Facilities
Security and Workplace Violence.....
Health and Safety.....
Ergonomics
Smoking
Housekeeping
Conducting Personal Business
Animals and Pets
Employees Who are Required to Drive
Safe Driving Policy

Travel Expenses
Expense Reimbursements

Benefits

Holidays
Medical / Dental / Vision Insurance
Cal Savers
California Disability Insurance
Workers' Compensation
COBRA

Employee Leaves of Absence

Sick Leave
California Family Rights Act (CFRA)
Pregnancy Disability Leave
Paid Family Leave
Military Leave
Jury Duty and Witness Leave
Bereavement Leave
Voting Leave
School Appearances Leave
Volunteer Firefighter / Reserve Peace Officer
Civil Air Patrol Leave
Leave Related to Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and/or Stalking
Crime Victims' Leave
Organ and Bone Marrow Donor's Leave
Disability Insurance Leave
Personal Leave

Acknowledgment

Company Information & Essential Legal Provisions

Introductory Statement

Welcome! As an employee of Angel Trans LLC (the "Company"), you are an important member of a team effort. We hope that you will find your position with Angel Trans LLC rewarding, challenging, and productive.

Because our success depends upon the dedication of our employees, we are highly selective in choosing new members of our team. We look to you and the other employees to contribute to the success of Angel Trans LLC.

This employee handbook is intended to explain the terms and conditions of employment of all full- and part-time employees and supervisors. Employees are expected to read this handbook carefully and to know and understand its contents. Your supervisor or manager will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

We wish you success in your employment here at Angel Trans LLC.

All the best,

Angela Silayo

Angela Silayo — Owner, Angel Trans LLC

Vision Statement

We envision becoming the most trustworthy non-emergency medical transportation service provider in the communities we serve.

Mission Statement

At Angel Trans LLC, we strive to provide our community with compassionate, empathetic, and professional medical transportation experiences.

Value Statement

Our care will be guided and delivered by our beliefs and commitments to Hope, Respect, Good Citizenship, Faith, Responsiveness, and Strong Leadership.

Employment At-Will

Company personnel are employed on an at-will basis. Employment at-will may be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice at any time by the employee or the Company. As part of your employment at will, Angel Trans LLC also may, with or without cause and with or without notice (1) change your hours, wages, job assignment, and working conditions and/or (2) demote, transfer, suspend, or otherwise discipline you, at its sole and absolute discretion. Nothing in this handbook shall limit the right to terminate at-will employment, nor Angel Trans LLC's right to alter all working conditions or to impose discipline. No manager, supervisor, or employee of the Company has any authority to enter into an agreement for employment for any specified time or to make an agreement for employment on other than at-will terms. Only Angela Silayo, the Owner, has the authority to make any such agreement, which is binding only if it is in writing.

Nothing in this at-will statement is intended to interfere with an employee's rights to communicate about or work with others toward altering the terms and conditions of his or her employment.

Ethics Code

Angel Trans LLC will conduct business honestly and ethically wherever operations are maintained. We strive to provide quality services, products, and operations and will maintain a reputation for honesty, fairness, respect, responsibility, integrity, trust, and sound business judgment. Our managers and team members are expected to adhere to high standards of business and personal integrity as a representation of our business practices, always consistent with their duty of loyalty to the Company.

We expect that officers, directors, and team members will not knowingly misrepresent the Company and will not speak on behalf of the Company unless specifically authorized. The confidentiality of trade secrets, proprietary information, and similar confidential commercially sensitive information (i.e., financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.) about the Company or operations, or that of our customers or partners, is to be treated with discretion and only disseminated on a need-to-know basis.

Violation of the Code of Ethics can result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. The degree of discipline imposed may be influenced by the existence of voluntary disclosure of any ethical violation and whether or not the violator cooperated in any subsequent investigation.

Integration Clause and the Right to Revise

This employee handbook contains the employment policies and practices of the Company in effect at the time of publication. All previously issued handbooks and any inconsistent policy statements or memoranda, practices, and/or procedures are superseded.

The Company reserves the right to revise, modify, delete, or add to any and all policies, procedures, work rules, or benefits stated in this handbook or any other document, except for the policy of at-will employment. However, any such changes must be in writing and must be signed by the Owner.

Any written changes to this handbook will be distributed to all employees so that employees will be aware of the new policies or procedures. Employees are responsible for knowing about and understanding any changes once they have been disseminated. No oral statements or representations can in any way alter the provisions of this handbook.

This handbook sets forth the entire agreement between you and the Company as to the duration of employment, the circumstances under which employment may be terminated, and how you can challenge decisions relating to your employment. Nothing in this employee handbook or in any other personnel document, including benefit plan descriptions, creates or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment for any employee.

Equal Employment Opportunity

This Company is an equal opportunity employer and makes employment decisions on the basis of merit. Individuals are considered for employment, transfer or promotion solely on their ability and potential to perform the requirements of the position. Company policy prohibits unlawful discrimination and harassment based on race (including traits historically associated with race, such as hair textures and protective hair styles), color, sex (including pregnancy, perceived pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and/or related medical conditions), gender, gender identity (including transgender identity and transitioning), gender expression and sex stereotyping, religious creed, marital status, registered domestic partner status, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, physical or mental disability (including HIV/AIDS), legally protected medical condition, genetic information, family care or medical leave status, military or veteran status, sexual orientation, status as a victim of domestic violence, assault or stalking, enrollment in a public assistance program, reproductive health decision making, and/or any other consideration made unlawful by federal, state or local laws.

Consistent with the law, the Company also makes reasonable accommodation for disabled applicants and employees; for pregnant employees who request an accommodation with the advice of their health care providers; for pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions; for lactating employees; for employees who are victims of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking; and for applicants and employees based on their religious beliefs and practices.

Complaint Procedure:

If you believe you have been subjected to any form of unlawful discrimination or harassment, submit a written complaint to your supervisor or the individual with day-to-day personnel responsibilities as soon as possible after the incident. Your complaint should be specific and should include details of the incident or incidents, the names of the individuals involved, and the names of any witnesses. Supervisors will refer all harassment complaints to the Owner. The Company will immediately undertake an effective, thorough, and objective investigation of the discrimination and/or harassment allegations.

If the Company determines that unlawful discrimination and/or harassment has occurred, effective remedial action will be taken commensurate with the severity of the offense, up to and including termination. Appropriate action also will be taken to deter any future discrimination and/or harassment.

No Retaliation:

Retaliation in any form against an employee who exercises his/her/their right to make a complaint, or against anyone who cooperates in the investigation of a complaint of unlawful discrimination and/or harassment under this policy is strictly prohibited, and, if confirmed, will itself be cause for appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Resolution Outside the Company:

The Company encourages all employees to report immediately any incidents of discrimination and/or harassment forbidden by this policy so that complaints can be quickly and fairly resolved. Company employees also have the right to contact the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the California Civil Rights Department. Contact information is posted at your location and listed online at www.eeoc.gov/contact and <https://calcivilrights.ca.gov/ContactUs/>.

Sexual and Other Harassment

In accordance with the Company's Equal Employment Opportunity policy, the Company is committed to providing a work environment free of unlawful harassment. The Company will not tolerate, and the law prohibits, harassment of its personnel by anyone. The Company's anti-harassment policy applies to all persons involved in the operation of the Company and prohibits unlawful harassment by any employee of the Company, including supervisors and coworkers.

Harassment may consist of unwelcome conduct, whether verbal, physical or visual, that is based upon any of a person's protected characteristics. The Company will not tolerate harassing conduct that affects job benefits, that interferes unreasonably with an individual's work performance, or that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment. Workplace bullying is also prohibited.

Sexual harassment deserves special mention. The Company prohibits sexual harassment, as it prohibits all forms of unlawful harassment. Sexual harassment may include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when: (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Prohibited unlawful sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the following behavior:

- Verbal conduct such as epithets; derogatory or sexually oriented or sexually explicit or suggestive jokes and/or comments; slurs; and/or unwanted sexual propositions or invitations.
- Visual displays such as derogatory or sexually oriented or sexually explicit or suggestive posters, photography, cartoons, drawings and/or gestures.
- Physical conduct including assault, unwanted touching, intentionally blocking normal movement or interfering with work because of sex.
- Comments reflecting gender-based stereotypes or offensive views about one sex or gender.
- Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests as a condition of continued employment or to avoid some other loss and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors.
- Retaliation for reporting or threatening to report harassment.
- Communication via electronic media of any type that includes any conduct that is prohibited by state and/or federal law or by Company policy.

See Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, above, for Complaint Procedure, No Retaliation, and Resolution Outside the Company.

Additional Employment Policies and Practices

New Hires and Introductory Periods

The first 90 days of continuous employment at the Company is considered an Introductory Period. During this time, you will learn your responsibilities, get acquainted with fellow employees, and determine whether you are happy with your job. Your supervisor will closely monitor your performance. Consistent with the Company's at-will employment policy, during the Introductory Period and thereafter, an employee may be discharged by the Company for any reason, with or without advance notice, and with or without cause.

Upon completion of the Introductory Period, the Company will review your performance. If the Company feels your performance is satisfactory and decides to continue your employment, it will advise you of any improvements expected from you. Completion of the Introductory Period does not entitle you to remain employed by the Company for any definite period or change the at-will status of your employment.

Employment Authorization Verification

New hires will be required to complete Section 1 of Federal Form I-9 on the first day of paid employment and must present acceptable documents authorized by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services proving identity and employment authorization no later than the third business day following the start of employment with Angel Trans LLC. If you are authorized to work in the country for a limited period of time, you will be required to submit proof of renewed employment eligibility prior to expiration of that period to remain employed by the Company.

Regular Full-Time Employees

Regular full-time employees are those who are scheduled for and who work 32 hours or more per week. Following the completion of the Introductory Period, unless stated otherwise or specifically permitted by law, all benefits are provided to regular full-time employees only.

Regular Part-Time Employees

Regular part-time employees are those who are scheduled for and who work no less than 24 hours per week. Part-time employees are not eligible for benefits unless specified otherwise in this handbook, in the benefit plan summaries, or specifically permitted by law.

Temporary Employees

Temporary employees are those employed for short-term assignments. Short-term assignments generally are periods of three (3) months or fewer; however, such assignments may be extended. Temporary employees are not eligible for employee benefits except those mandated by law.

Overtime for Non-Exempt Employees

Employees may be required to work overtime as necessary. Only actual hours worked in each workday or workweek will be counted in calculating overtime. All overtime work must be previously expressly authorized by a supervisor. The Company provides compensation for all overtime hours worked by non-exempt employees under state and federal law as follows:

- All hours worked over eight hours in one workday or 40 hours in one workweek will be treated as overtime. A workday begins at 12:01 a.m. and ends at midnight 24 hours later. Workweeks begin each Sunday at 12:01 a.m. and they end the following Saturday at midnight.
- Compensation for hours over 40 for the workweek, or over eight and not more than 12 for the workday, and for the first eight hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in one workweek, shall be paid at a rate one and one-half times the employee's regular rate of pay.
- Compensation for hours over 12 in one workday and over eight on the seventh consecutive workday in a workweek shall be paid at double the regular rate of pay.

Off-the-clock work is strictly prohibited. If you are aware of any violations of this policy, you must immediately report it to the Owner.

Exempt Employees

If you are classified as an exempt employee, you are not eligible for overtime pay as otherwise required by federal, state, or local laws. The work schedules, rest periods, and meal break sections of this handbook do not apply to exempt employees. Exempt employees are responsible for scheduling their time in consultation with Angela Silayo, the Owner, in a manner that ensures their responsibilities will be completed on time.

In general, an exempt employee will receive their salary for any week in which the employee performs any work, regardless of the number of days or hours worked. However, an exempt employee will not be paid for days not worked in the following circumstances: when an exempt employee takes one or more full days off for personal reasons other than sickness or disability; when an exempt employee works only part of the week during their first and last week with the Company; or when an exempt employee takes unpaid leave under FMLA, CFRA, and corresponding statutes.

Day of Rest

All non-exempt employees are entitled to one day of rest per work week. Employees are not permitted to work more than six days within one workweek. Employees who feel they were not provided a day of rest by this policy should inform their supervisor or manager and, if not corrected, the Owner, immediately.

Job Duties / Job Descriptions

Job descriptions will be provided to you so you can have a clear understanding of your job responsibilities and the performance standards expected of you. Be aware that your job responsibilities may change at any time during your employment. Due to business needs, you may be asked to work on special projects, or to assist with other work necessary or important to the operation of the Company. The Company reserves the right to alter or change job responsibilities, reassign or transfer job positions, or assign additional job responsibilities at any time, with or without notice.

Work Schedules

Your supervisor will assign your work schedule based on operational needs. The request from employees to provide their availability is only a privilege for ease of scheduling. The Company reserves the right to schedule employees on any day and time not approved off. Some employees may be assigned to work holidays, and requests for these holidays off may not be guaranteed depending on business necessity. All employees are expected to be at their workstations at the start of their scheduled shifts, ready to work.

If an employee's availability changes, they must provide this information to the scheduling manager at least 30 days before the change.

Shift Exchanges

Exchanging work schedules with other employees is discouraged. Ideally, shift exchanges should be requested at least 48 hours before the start of the shift. Use the time and attendance software/app to request the exchange. There is no guarantee that the exchange will be approved.

Time Off Requests

If an employee would like to request time off, they must use the time and attendance software/app to make the time off request at least 30 days before the start of the time off request. The Company reserves the right not to approve time off requests if it will interfere with Company operations or adversely affect coverage of job and staff requirements.

On-Call Shift

Angel Trans LLC employees may be scheduled for an on-call shift, at which time they may be called in to work to cover an unforeseen scheduling need or emergency. Employees who are scheduled for an on-call shift are expected to respond to the Company when called in and be able to report to work within 30 minutes. Employees scheduled on-call shifts will be paid as follows:

1. For time spent waiting for a call to work, employees will be paid minimum wage for the scheduled hours.
2. When an employee is called into work, they will be paid their regular hourly rate of pay once clocked in, and the employees will be paid for all time spent working, or a minimum of two hours, whichever is greater.

Employees on an on-call shift are required to comply with applicable company policies, including the Company's Drug and Alcohol Policy.

Recording Time

Angel Trans LLC is required by applicable federal, state, and local laws to keep accurate records of hours worked for non-exempt/hourly employees. To ensure that the Company has complete and accurate time records and that team members are paid for all hours worked, nonexempt team members are required to record all working time using Company employee timecards.

You must accurately record all your time to ensure you are paid for all hours worked and must follow established Company procedures for recording your hours worked. Time must be recorded as follows:

- Immediately before starting your shift.
- Immediately after finishing work, before your meal period.
- Immediately before resuming work, after your meal period.
- Immediately after finishing work.
- Immediately before and after any other time away from work.

Employees will be required to clock in and out utilizing the Company's timekeeping software. You should clock in no more than five minutes ahead of your start time and clock out no later than five minutes after your quitting time. Falsifying time entries is strictly prohibited and may result in discipline up to and including termination.

Paycheck Deductions

Angel Trans LLC is required by law to make certain deductions from your pay each pay period. This includes Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) contributions (Social Security and Medicare), Federal and State tax withholdings, and any other deductions required under law or by court order for wage garnishments. The amount of your tax deductions will depend on your earnings and the withholding status and amounts you list on your federal Form W-4 and applicable state withholding form.

The Company will not make deductions to your pay that are prohibited by federal, state, or local law. If you have any questions about deductions from your pay, contact your supervisor. You will be reimbursed in full for any isolated, inadvertent, or improper deductions, as defined by law.

Meal and Rest Periods

Meal Periods

All non-exempt employees are provided with a 30-minute unpaid meal period to be taken approximately in the middle of the workday. If an employee works more than 10 hours in a day, the employee shall take a first unpaid uninterrupted meal period of 30 minutes no later than the fifth hour of work and a second unpaid uninterrupted meal period of 30 minutes no later than the tenth hour of work. You are required to clock out and clock in for these mandatory meal periods.

If you work fewer than six hours in a workday, you may mutually agree with your supervisor, in writing, to waive the meal period. If you work no more than 12 hours in a workday and have taken the first meal period, you may mutually agree with your supervisor, in writing, to waive the second meal period.

NEMT Drivers and EMTs are required to carry their company communication devices during their meal periods, keep these devices on, and respond to calls if necessary. If you miss your meal break or the meal break is interrupted due to a transport call, you will continue to be paid for this time. Due to the nature of patient transportation, there may be times that meal breaks cannot be taken within the first 5 hours of work. Employees are responsible for taking their breaks when time is available between calls.

Rest Periods

All non-exempt employees are allowed a 10-minute paid rest period for every four hours of work or a major portion thereof. Employees should take their rest periods in the middle of each work period to the extent it is practicable to do so. You are not required to clock out or in for rest periods. Rest periods are available based on the hourly breakdown below:

- Less than three and a half hours worked in a day: no rest period.
- Three and a half to 5:59 hours worked: one 10-minute rest period.
- Six to 9:59 hours worked: two 10-minute rest periods.

- Ten to 14 hours worked: three 10-minute rest periods.

Field employees (NEMT Drivers and EMTs) are required to take their meal breaks during downtime between calls by notifying dispatch of their intent to go on meal break. No Company manager or supervisor may impede or discourage employees from taking meal or rest periods provided under this policy.

Lactation Accommodation

Any employee who requires a break for lactation or breast pumping may take one whenever needed. Lactating employees should request lactation accommodation from their supervisor as soon as reasonably practicable upon learning of the need for lactation accommodation. The Company will provide a private space for lactation in accordance with applicable law. Employees have a right to file a complaint with the California Labor Commissioner for any violation of the law on lactation accommodation.

Disability Accommodation

Angel Trans LLC complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA), the Pregnancy Discrimination Act, the Fair Employment and Housing Act, the Pregnancy Disability Leave law, and all other applicable state and local employment practices laws. The Company is committed to providing equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with disabilities, including disabilities related to pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions. Consistent with this commitment, the Company will provide reasonable accommodation to otherwise qualified individuals with disabilities, where appropriate, to allow the individual to perform the essential functions of the job, unless doing so would create an undue hardship on the business.

If you require accommodation because of your disability, it is your responsibility to notify your manager. After receiving your request, the Company will engage in an interactive dialogue with you to better understand the limitations of your disability and explore potential reasonable accommodations that might overcome those limitations.

Payment of Wages

Paychecks are normally available on payday by 5:00 p.m. Employees are expected to review their paystubs every pay period to ensure that all information, including payroll deductions, is correct. If there are any errors or you have a question regarding your paycheck, contact your supervisor immediately.

Paydays are the 10th and the 25th of every month. If a regular payday falls on a weekend or holiday, employees will be paid on the day prior. The Company offers direct deposit services. To begin automatic payroll deposit, complete the required form and return it to payroll at least 10 days before the pay period for which you would like the service to begin.

Personnel Records — Names and Addresses

The information in an employee's personnel file is permanent and confidential and must be kept up to date. The Company is required by law to keep current all employees' names and addresses. Employees are responsible for notifying the Company in the event of a name or address change.

Inspection and/or Disclosure of Personnel Records

You have a right to inspect certain documents in your personnel file, as provided by law, in the presence of a Company representative at a mutually convenient time and on reasonable notice. Personnel files are the property of the Company and may not be removed from Company premises without written authorization from the Owner. Any request for information contained in personnel files must be directed to the Owner.

Whistleblower Policy

When an employee notifies a supervisor, manager, or an appropriate government or law enforcement agency that he/she/they have reason to believe his/her/their employer is (a) violating a state or federal statute, or (b) violating or not complying with a local, state or federal rule or regulation, or (c) permitting unsafe working conditions or work practices in the employee's employment or place of employment, such employee is protected from retaliation. Angel Trans LLC has a strict policy that prohibits retaliation against employees who make such reports.

If you have information regarding possible violations of state or federal statutes, or local, state, or federal rules, or regulations, we encourage you to report it immediately to the Owner, Angela Silayo. Alternatively, you may contact the California State Attorney General's Whistleblower Hotline at (800) 952-5225.

Open Door Policy

Suggestions for improving the Company are always welcome. If you have a complaint, suggestion, or question about your job, your working conditions, or the treatment you are receiving, we ask you to follow these steps:

3. Bring the situation to the attention of your immediate supervisor, who will then investigate and provide a solution or explanation.
4. If the problem persists, you may present it to the Operations Manager, who will investigate and provide a solution or explanation.
5. If the problem is not resolved, or you are uncomfortable bringing the issue to your supervisor or the Operations Manager, you may present the problem directly to the Owner, who will attempt to reach a final resolution.

Nothing in this open-door policy is intended to interfere with an employee's rights to communicate about or work with others toward altering the terms and conditions of his/her/their employment.

Conflicts of Interest

Employees are expected to devote their best efforts and attention to the full-time performance of their jobs and are expected to use good judgment, to adhere to high ethical standards, and to avoid situations that create an actual or potential conflict between their personal interests and the legitimate business interests of the Company. A conflict of interest exists when an employee's loyalties or interests are divided between the Company and those of another, such as a competitor, supplier, patient, or former employer. While it is not feasible to describe all possible conflicts of interest that could develop, some of the more common conflicts that employees should avoid are:

- Accepting gifts or entertainment worth more than $100 from competitors, patients, suppliers, or potential suppliers.
- Working for a competitor, supplier, former employer, or patient while employed by the Company.
- Engaging in self-employment in competition with the Company.
- Using proprietary or confidential Company or patient information or equipment for personal gain or to the Company's detriment.
- Using Company property or labor for personal use.
- Violating the Company's Conflict of Interest rules.

Reductions in Force

Under some circumstances, the Company may need to restructure or reduce its workforce. If restructuring or reducing the number of employees becomes necessary, the Company will attempt to provide advance notice, if possible, to help prepare affected individuals. This Reductions in Force policy in no way limits or alters the at-will employment relationship.

Involuntary Termination

Violation of Company policies and rules may warrant disciplinary action. The Company has established a system of progressive discipline that includes verbal warnings, written warnings, and suspension. The system is not formal, and the Company may, in its sole discretion, utilize whatever form of discipline is deemed appropriate under the circumstances, up to and including termination of employment. Employees who are terminated will receive their final paycheck immediately and all unused accrued vacation/PTO time will be paid out in addition to final wages.

Voluntary Separation

Voluntary separation results when an employee voluntarily resigns his/her/their employment or fails to report to work for three consecutively scheduled workdays without notice to, or approval by, his/her/their supervisor, or fails to return from an approved leave of absence on the date specified by the Company. If you voluntarily separate employment, all final wages will be paid within 72 hours of your separation (if you give at least 72 hours' notice, your check will be available on your last day of employment) including all unused accrued vacation time.

All Company-owned property, including keys, door passes, business cards, uniforms, electronic devices, and all other assigned Company property must be returned immediately upon termination of employment, whether voluntary or involuntary.

Standards of Conduct

Prohibited Conduct

Employees are expected to observe certain standards of job performance and good conduct. When performance or conduct does not meet Company standards, the employee will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination. The following conduct is prohibited and will not be tolerated by the Company:

- Falsifying employment records, employment information, or other Company records.
- Recording the work time of another employee or allowing any other employee to record your work time, or falsifying any timecard.
- Theft and/or deliberate or careless damage or destruction of any Company property, or the property of any employee, client, or patient.
- Removing or borrowing Company property without prior authorization.
- Disclosing or using confidential proprietary information, such as the Company's trade secrets, without authorization.
- Unauthorized use of Company equipment, time, materials, or facilities.
- Provoking a fight or fighting during working hours or on Company property.
- Participating in horseplay or practical jokes on Company time or on Company premises.
- Carrying firearms or any other dangerous weapons on Company premises or while conducting Company business, at any time.
- Being convicted of a crime that indicates unfitness for the job or raises a threat to the safety or well-being of the Company, its employees, clients, patients or property.
- Insubordination, including but not limited to failure or refusal to obey the orders or instructions of a supervisor or member of management, or the use of abusive or threatening language toward a supervisor or member of management.
- Failing to notify a supervisor when unable to report to work.
- Unreported absence of three consecutive scheduled workdays.
- Sleeping or malingering on the job.
- Working overtime without authorization or refusing to work assigned overtime.
- Violating any safety, health, security or Company policy, rule, or procedure.
- Committing a fraudulent act or a breach of trust under any circumstances.
- Committing or involvement in any act of unlawful harassment of or discrimination against another individual.
- Violating the Company's Conflict of Interest rules.

This statement of prohibited conduct does not alter the Company's policy of at-will employment. Either you or the Company remain free to terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without reason or advance notice.

Off-Duty Conduct

While the Company does not seek to interfere with the off-duty and personal conduct of its employees, certain types of off-duty conduct may interfere with the Company's legitimate business interests. For this reason, employees are expected to conduct their personal affairs in a manner that does not adversely affect the Company's or their own integrity, reputation, or credibility. Illegal off-duty conduct, or off-duty conduct in violation of any Company policy, will not be tolerated.

While employed by the Company, employees are expected to devote their employment energies to their jobs with the Company. The following types of additional employment elsewhere are strictly prohibited:

- Additional employment that conflicts with an employee's work schedule, duties, and responsibilities at our Company.
- Additional employment that creates a conflict of interest or is incompatible with the employee's position with our Company.
- Additional employment that impairs or has a detrimental effect on the employee's work performance with our Company.

- Additional employment that directly or indirectly competes with the business or the interests of our Company.

Drug and Alcohol Abuse

The Company is concerned about the use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or controlled substances as it affects the workplace. Employees who are under the influence of an illegal drug or alcohol while on the job compromise the Company's interests and endanger their own health and safety and the health and safety of others. To further its interest in avoiding accidents and to promote and maintain safe and efficient working conditions, the Company has established this guideline concerning the use of alcohol and drugs. As a condition of employment with the Company, each employee must abide by this guideline.

The following rules and standards of conduct apply to all employees when (1) on Company premises, (2) conducting or performing Company business, (3) operating or responsible for the operation, custody or care of Company equipment or other property, or (4) responsible for the safety of others in connection with, or while performing Company-related business. Behavior that violates Company policy includes:

- Possession or use of an illegal or controlled substance, or being under the influence of an illegal or controlled substance while on the job.
- Distribution, sale, or purchase of an illegal or controlled substance while on the job.

Violation of these rules and standards of conduct will not be tolerated. Any violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Legal Drugs (Prescription or Over the Counter)

The Company recognizes that employees may, from time to time, be prescribed legal drugs that, when taken as prescribed, may result in impairment. Employees may not work while impaired by the use of legal drugs if the impairment might endanger the employee or someone else, pose a risk of significant damage to Company property, or substantially interfere with the employee's job performance. If an employee is so impaired, he or she may not report to work and may use accrued sick leave or vacation time.

The Company will encourage and reasonably accommodate employees with alcohol or drug dependencies to seek treatment and/or rehabilitation. Employees desiring such assistance should talk to the Owner.

Reasonable Suspicion Testing

All employees will be required to undergo drug and alcohol testing whenever a supervisor has reason to believe that they are unfit or unable to safely perform their job functions. This determination will be based on specific observations of behavior, appearance, speech, or body odors. These observations will be documented by a supervisor and/or manager. The employee will not be allowed to return to duty until the results of the drug and/or alcohol testing are known.

Punctuality and Attendance

As an employee of the Company, you are expected to be punctual and regular in attendance. If you are unable to report for work on any particular day, you must call your supervisor at least three hours before the time you are scheduled to begin working for that day. In all cases of absence or tardiness, employees must provide their supervisor with an honest reason or explanation. Excessive unexcused absenteeism or tardiness will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This Company defines excessive absenteeism as more than 3 occurrences in one month.

Dress Code, Grooming, and Other Personal Standards

The Company considers the presentation of the Company image to its customers, vendors, and the public at large to be extremely important. All employees are expected to observe the dress code below.

Office staff are expected to dress in business casual attire appropriate for the job they perform.

All NEMT Drivers are required to wear the company uniform which includes a dark blue shirt with the Angel Trans LLC company logo, as well as dark blue uniform pants. Your photo name badge must be worn at all times. Black shoes or boots are acceptable footwear. Company uniforms must always be worn during working hours, while in public view, or while transporting patients and clients to and from facilities and appointments.

The Company uniforms should always be neat and clean, as well as free of holes. They should be tucked in with a black belt. Faded or torn items will not be acceptable. During cold weather you may wear a jacket or Angel Trans LLC sweatshirt over your shirt.

The Company, in accordance with applicable law, will reasonably accommodate team members with disabilities or religious beliefs that make it difficult for them to comply fully with the personal appearance policy. Any employee who needs such an accommodation should contact Human Resources.

Nonsolicitation / Nondistribution Policy

To avoid disruption of business operations or disturbance of employees, visitors, and others, Angel Trans LLC has implemented a Nonsolicitation/Nondistribution Policy. You are prohibited from soliciting other employees during your assigned working time. To avoid inappropriate litter, clutter, and safety risks, you may not distribute literature or other items that are not work related in working areas at any time. Non-employees are not permitted to distribute materials on Company premises at any time.

Nothing in this policy is intended to interfere with an employee's rights to communicate about or work with others toward altering the terms and conditions of his/her/their employment.

Client and Patient Relations

Employees are expected to be polite, courteous, prompt, and attentive to every client and patient. When an employee encounters an uncomfortable situation, his/her/their supervisor should be called immediately.

- Ours is a service business and all of us must remember that the patient always comes first.
- Patients are to be treated courteously and always given proper attention. Never regard a patient's question or concern as an interruption or an annoyance.
- Never place a telephone caller on hold for an extended period.
- If you are unable to help a client or patient, find someone who can.
- Never argue with a patient. If a problem develops or if a patient remains dissatisfied, ask your supervisor to intervene.
- When working with pickup facilities, drivers should always arrive at least 10 minutes prior to pickup so that they are better prepared for the client and patient.

All pickup and drop-off facilities are considered clients as well, so the Company expects all employees to follow the same guidelines when communicating with any staff members at these facilities.

Confidentiality and Nondisclosure of Trade Secrets

Each employee is responsible for safeguarding the confidential information obtained during employment. In the course of your work, you may have access to confidential information regarding the Company, its clients, patients, or perhaps even fellow employees. You have a responsibility to prevent revealing or divulging any such information unless you must do so in the performance of your duties. Access to confidential information should be on a "need-to-know" basis and must be authorized by your supervisor. Any breach of this policy will not be tolerated, and legal action may be taken by the Company.

Company-proprietary information includes, but is not limited to, Company trade secrets, financial or sales records, customer lists, staffing practices or changes, operating plans, issues under consideration by the Company, salaries, marketing or business strategies, and personnel issues. Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination and may subject the violator to civil liability.

Nothing in this Confidentiality/Nondisclosure policy is intended to interfere with an employee's rights to communicate about or work with others toward altering the terms and conditions of his/her/their employment.

HIPAA Requirements

Angel Trans LLC is committed to protecting the confidentiality and security of health information by complying with the standards contained in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). In compliance with HIPAA, employees will:

- Strictly safeguard all protected health information (PHI) and must never disclose such information without the appropriate patient authorization or as otherwise allowed by law.
- Ensure all patient rights and other requirements provided under the HIPAA privacy standards are followed.

- Comply with HIPAA and other protected information policies and procedures.

News Media Contacts

Employees may be approached for interviews or comments by the news media. Only contact people designated by the Owner may comment to news reporters on Company policy or events relevant to the Company or its patients.

Operations Policies

Company and Employee Property

Company property includes all documents, records, software, electronic codes, data, and files, in both hard copy and electronic form, relating to the Company's business; and all equipment, hardware, and other property of any kind issued to you by the Company, whether owned, leased, rented or used by the Company. The Company reserves the right to conduct a routine inspection of all Company property on Company premises, without notice to the employee and at any time, not necessarily in the employee's presence.

Company voice mail and/or electronic mail (e-mail) are to be used for business purposes only. The Company reserves the right to monitor voice mail messages and e-mail messages to ensure compliance with this rule, without notice to the employee and at any time.

Use of Electronic Media

The Company uses various forms of electronic communication including computers, e-mail, telephones and the Internet. All electronic communications, including all software, databases, hardware, digital files and the Company's server remain the sole property of the Company and are to be used only for Company business and not for any personal use.

Electronic communication and media may not be used in any manner that would be discriminatory, harassing, or obscene, or for any other purpose that is illegal and/or against Company policy. Employees who are found to have misused electronic communications will be subject to discipline up to and including immediate termination.

GPS Tracking

For business and safety reasons, Angel Trans LLC company vehicles, certain hand-held devices, tablets, and other business equipment, are equipped with GPS tracking systems. The company has the right to use GPS to monitor the location and activities of these company-issued vehicles and equipment during working hours or when an employee is performing Angel Trans LLC business. Tampering or disabling any GPS device is considered destruction of Company property as well as falsification of records, and employees violating this policy may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Company Security Cameras

Angel Trans LLC has security cameras installed in all vehicles and office areas. These cameras have been installed for business-related reasons and provide security, theft protection, the ability to monitor safe driving practices, and respond to emergency situations when needed. Employees should have no expectation of privacy in work-related areas including company-owned vehicles. Tampering or disabling vehicle cameras is considered destruction of Company property. Please contact the Operations Manager if you have any questions regarding this policy.

Personal Cell Phones / Mobile Devices

While Angel Trans LLC permits employees to bring personal cell phones and other mobile devices into the workplace, you must not allow the use of such devices to interfere with your job duties or impact workplace safety and health. Use of personal cell phones and mobile devices at work can be distracting and disruptive and cause a loss of productivity. Thus, you should primarily use such personal devices during nonworking time, such as breaks and meal periods. Outside of nonworking time, use of such devices should be minimal and limited to emergency use only.

Social Media Policy

The Company recognizes that many employees participate in many forms of social media including, but not limited to blogs, Facebook, Twitter/X, LinkedIn, Instagram, Snapchat, TikTok, YouTube, and others. The use of social media presents certain risks. An employee's Internet postings must not disclose any information that is confidential, privileged, and/or proprietary to the Company, any of its clients and patients, or to anyone who has disclosed information to the Company.

The Company's equal employment, anti-harassment, and anti-bullying policies apply to all social media communication with the same force as to other forms of verbal or written communication. Posting discriminatory, harassing, or retaliatory comments will not be tolerated under any circumstances and may result in immediate termination.

- You are personally responsible for the content you publish on social media. Be mindful that what you publish will be public for a long time.
- Never publish or disclose Angel Trans LLC or another's confidential or other proprietary information.
- Never cite or reference customers, patients, partners, suppliers, or other Angel Trans LLC business associates without their express written approval.
- Always respect your audience. Do not use ethnic slurs, personal insults, or obscenities.
- Be aware of your association with Angel Trans LLC in online social networks.

Off-Duty Use of Facilities

Other than if an employee chooses to remain on premises during meal or rest breaks, employees are prohibited from remaining on Company premises or making use of Company facilities while not on duty. Employees are expressly prohibited from using Company facilities, Company property, or Company equipment for personal use.

Security and Workplace Violence

The Company is committed to providing a workplace that is free from acts of violence or threats of violence. The Company has established a policy that provides zero tolerance for actual or threatened violence by or against coworkers, visitors, or any other persons who are either on our premises or have contact with employees in the course of their duties. Every overt or implied verbal or physical threat of violence must be treated seriously and reported immediately to your supervisor. All reports will be promptly investigated. In situations where you become aware of an imminent act of violence, immediately contact law enforcement authorities by dialing 9-1-1.

Health and Safety

The Company considers your safety, and the safety of all its employees, to be of primary importance. All employees are responsible for their own safety, as well as that of others in the workplace. Report all work-related injuries or illnesses immediately to your supervisor or to the Human Resources Department. In compliance with California law, the Company maintains an Injury and Illness Prevention Program, which is available for review by employees and/or employee representatives.

Ergonomics

The Company is subject to Cal/OSHA ergonomics standards for minimizing workplace repetitive motion injuries. The Company will make necessary adjustments to reduce exposure to ergonomic hazards through modifications to equipment and processes and employee training. If you have any questions about ergonomics, please contact your supervisor.

Smoking

The Company is concerned about the effects of smoking and secondhand smoke inhalation on its employees, clients, and patients. Smoking (including smoking of e-cigarettes) is not allowed in any enclosed area of the facility or in Company vehicles.

Housekeeping

All employees are expected to keep their work areas clean and organized. People using common areas such as lunchrooms, locker rooms, and restrooms are expected to keep them sanitary. Please clean up after meals and dispose of trash properly.

Conducting Personal Business

Employees are to conduct only Company business while at work. Employees may not conduct personal business or business for another employer during their scheduled working hours.

Animals and Pets

Animals or pets, other than support animals or service animals for disabled employees or visitors, are not allowed on the premises except by special permission of ownership.

Employees Who are Required to Drive

Employees who are required to drive a Company vehicle or their own vehicles on Company business will be required to show proof of current valid driving licenses and current effective insurance coverage before the first day of employment. The Company participates in a system that regularly checks state Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) records of all employees who drive as part of their job.

The Company strictly prohibits the use of all handheld mobile devices, including but not limited to cell phones, smartphones, and tablets, for work purposes while operating a motor vehicle. Employees may use hands-free mobile devices when driving when safe and lawful to do so. Under no circumstances may employees use mobile devices to write, send, or read any e-mails, text, or other written messages while operating a motor vehicle.

Safe Driving Policy

The objective of this policy is to ensure that employees who drive a vehicle in the course of their daily work demonstrate safe, efficient driving skills and road safety habits at all times. The employee must maintain all company vehicles in a safe, clean, roadworthy condition to ensure the maximum safety of the drivers, occupants, patients, and other road users.

The following actions in company vehicles will be viewed as serious breaches of conduct and will result in disciplinary action up to termination:

- Drinking alcohol or being under the influence of drugs while driving.
- Driving while disqualified or not correctly licensed.
- Reckless or dangerous driving causing death or injury.
- Failing to stop after a crash.
- Acquiring demerit points leading to suspension of license.

Every employee who drives a company vehicle will:

- Ensure they have a valid driver's license for the class of vehicle they are driving.
- Immediately notify their supervisor if their driver's license is suspended, canceled, or has had limitations placed on it.
- Comply with all traffic laws when driving, including following posted speed limits and always wearing a safety belt.
- Never drive under the influence of alcohol or drugs, including prescription and over-the-counter medication if they cause drowsiness.
- Report any near-hits, crashes, and scrapes to their manager, including those that do not result in injury.

If an employee gets into an accident, immediately stop your vehicle at the scene or as close to it as possible, making sure not to obstruct traffic. Ensure your safety first. Help any injured people and call for assistance if needed. If anyone is injured, there is a disagreement over the cause of the crash, or damage to the vehicle looks to be worth more than $2,500, contact law enforcement. Employees must immediately report the accident to the Operations Manager or Owner. All employees in the vehicle at the time of accident must complete an Incident/Accident report within 24 hours.

Travel Expenses

At times it may be necessary for employees to transport a patient to a facility outside of the Company's normal transportation zone and this would require overnight stays. Travel is limited to these necessary transports and would require prior approval from the Owner. If overnight travel is necessary, Angel Trans LLC will cover the actual amount incurred for lodging. Neither in-room movies nor refreshment bars are approved Company expenses. The employee will need to report approved expenses and include a description of the expense, its business purpose, date, place, and receipt.

Expense Reimbursements

The Company reimburses employees for reasonable business expenses. Employees must receive prior approval before incurring a business-related expense. Once the expense is approved, employees must submit the business receipt(s) and the expense reimbursement form to the appropriate manager no later than the 30th of each month. If you have any questions about the Company's expense reimbursement policy, contact the Owner.

Benefits

Holidays

The Company observes the following holidays, during which time the office will be closed:

- New Year's Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Day

Full-time employees are eligible for holiday pay beginning after the completion of their 90-day Introductory Period. To be eligible for holiday pay, you must be regularly scheduled to work on the day on which the holiday is observed and must work your regularly scheduled working days immediately preceding and immediately following the holiday unless an absence on either day is approved in advance by your supervisor. Employees who work on one of the above-observed holidays will be paid 1.5x their regular rate of pay for all hours worked. Part-time and temporary employees are not eligible for paid holidays.

Medical / Dental / Vision Insurance

The Company provides medical/dental/vision plans for full-time eligible employees and their dependents. Full-time eligible employees are those who work 30 hours or more per week. The Company will pay a portion of the premium beginning on the first of the month following their 60-day anniversary. In the event of an increase in medical insurance premium rates, employees may be required to contribute to the cost of increased premiums to retain coverage. Please see your supervisor or HR for additional information.

Cal Savers

The Company participates in California's retirement program called Cal Savers. This retirement program allows employees to save for their retirement through a payroll deduction. This program is fully administered through the State of California and all employees are eligible to participate. Information will be sent to your home location giving you full details of the program's requirements and options.

Workers' Compensation

You are protected by the Company's workers' compensation insurance policy while employed by the Company, at no cost to you. The policy covers you in case of occupational injury or illness, provides for coverage of medical treatment and expenses, occupational disability leave, rehabilitation services, as well as payment for lost wages due to work-related injuries. Neither the Company nor its insurer will be liable for payment of workers' compensation benefits for any injury that arises out of an employee's voluntary participation in any off-duty recreational, social, or athletic activity that is not part of the employee's work-related duties.

Employee Leaves of Absence

Sick Leave

In following California's Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act, California protects an eligible employee's right to take a certain amount of paid sick leave without fear of retaliation or discrimination.

Eligibility

To qualify for paid sick leave, an employee must work for the same employer for at least 30 days within California. Full-time, part-time, and temporary employees are eligible.

Accrual of Sick Leave

A qualifying employee begins to accrue sick leave on the first day of employment. The accrual rate for sick leave is one hour for every thirty hours worked up to a maximum of 40 hours (5 days) annually.

Using Sick Leave

A qualifying employee may begin to use accrued sick leave on their 90th day of employment. The year will be calculated from the calendar year. An employee planning to use accrued paid sick leave must notify the Company at least 2 days in advance, if reasonably foreseeable.

Carryover/Accrual Cap

Earned but unused sick leave will carry over to the following leave year up to a maximum of 10 days or 80 hours. However, you may only use 40 hours (or 5 days) in a calendar year maximum.

Purposes for Which Sick Leave Can Be Used

- When an employee is ill or injured, or to receive medical care (including preventive care), treatment or diagnosis, or other medical reason.
- To aid or care for a covered family member or designated person who is ill or injured or receiving medical care.
- For certain specified purposes when an employee is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- For purposes related to bone marrow donation or organ donation by the employee or an employee's family.

Accrued paid sick leave will not be cashed out by the Company upon termination.

California Family Rights Act (CFRA)

The California Family Rights Act entitles eligible employees (those who have worked for the Company for at least one year and have at least 1250 hours of service in the past 12 months) to take up to a total of twelve weeks of leave for 12 months for:

- For the birth of a child or adoption or foster placement of a child (must be completed within one year of the event).
- To care for an immediate family member (spouse, domestic partner, child of any age, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, parent, parent-in-law, and/or designated person) with a serious health condition.
- When the employee is unable to work because of a serious health condition.
- For qualifying exigency related to the covered active duty or call to covered active duty of an employee's spouse, domestic partner, child, or parent in the Armed Forces of the United States.

CFRA leaves are unpaid leaves. However, employees may choose to use accrued, unused vacation time to provide income replacement during any CFRA leave and accrued unused sick time to provide income replacement during CFRA leaves for serious health conditions. CFRA Leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Pregnancy Disability Leave

If an employee is disabled by pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, the employee is eligible for a Pregnancy Disability Leave (PDL) for any period(s) of actual disability caused by the employee's pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, up to four months (or 88 workdays for a full-time employee) per pregnancy. The PDL may be taken intermittently or on a reduced hours schedule, as medically necessary. Pregnancy Disability Leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Paid Family Leave

The State of California provides up to eight weeks of partial wage replacement to employees who take time off from work to care for a seriously ill family member or to bond with a new child entering the family through birth, adoption, or foster care placement. The program is administered by the State Disability Insurance program. For more information, visit the PFL webpage at https://www.edd.ca.gov/disability/about_pfl.htm.

Military Leave (USERRA and California State Law)

An employee in the armed forces of the United States (or reserves), National Guard, naval militia or California state military reserve will be granted military and training leaves in accordance with federal and state laws. An employee must provide written verification from the appropriate military authority in advance of the need for military leave, unless prevented from doing so by military necessity. This leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Jury Duty and Witness Leave

The Company will provide employees with time off to serve, as required by law, on a jury or grand jury, or to appear in court or other judicial proceedings as a witness to comply with a valid subpoena or other court order. Leaves under this section will be unpaid. However exempt employees who work any portion of a workweek in which they also serve on jury duty will receive their full salary for that workweek. This leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Bereavement Leave

Upon the death of an immediate family member, employees who have completed 30 days of employment will be eligible to receive unpaid bereavement leave of up to five (5) workdays to arrange and attend the funeral. This leave can be taken intermittently within three (3) months of death, or all at once. For purposes of this policy, immediate family member includes: child (including foster child and stepchild), spouse, sister, brother, parents (including foster parents and stepparents), grandparents. You may request to use accrued vacation or available California paid sick leave for this leave.

Voting Leave

Employees who do not have sufficient time outside of working hours to vote in a statewide election may request time off to vote. If possible, employees should make their request at least two days in advance of the election. Up to two hours of paid time off will be provided, at the beginning or end of the employee's regular shift, whichever allows the freest time for voting and the least time off from the regular work shift, unless prior approval has been granted.

School Appearances Leave

Employees will be granted time off without pay to appear in school if they are the parent or guardian of a child who is suspended from class or school and are required to appear at the school in connection with the disciplinary suspension. When the Company has 25 or more employees, employees may also be granted up to 40 hours per calendar year (no more than 8 hours in any calendar month) to participate in the activities of schools or licensed child daycare facilities attended by their children.

Volunteer Firefighter, Reserve Peace Officer and Emergency Rescue Personnel

Non-exempt employees will be granted time off without pay to perform emergency duties as a volunteer firefighter, reserve peace officer, or emergency rescue personnel. Exempt employees who work any portion of a workweek in which they also perform such emergency duties or training will receive their full salary for that workweek. This leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Civil Air Patrol Leave

Employees who have worked for the Company for at least 90 days immediately preceding the leave, and who are responding to an emergency operational mission of the California Civil Air Patrol, are permitted to take 10 days of Civil Air Patrol leave per calendar year. Civil Air Patrol leave for a single emergency operational mission shall not exceed three days unless the Company grants an extended leave. This leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Leave Related to Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and/or Stalking

The Company will provide time off to an employee who has been the victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking to seek any relief, including but not limited to a temporary restraining order, permanent restraining order, or other injunctive relief, to help ensure the health, safety, or welfare of the victim or the victim's child. The Company also provides time off for employees to seek medical attention, obtain services from a domestic violence shelter or rape crisis center, obtain psychological counseling, or participate in safety planning. This leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Crime Victims' Leave

The Company will provide time off to an employee to attend judicial proceedings relating to certain felony crimes, if that employee is a victim of the crime, an immediate family member of a victim, a registered domestic partner of a victim, or the child of a registered domestic partner of a victim. Leave under this policy is unpaid; however, the employee may elect to use accrued vacation or sick leave, if available. This leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Organ and Bone Marrow Donor's Leave

Employees who are donors for organs or bone marrow may take paid time off as follows:

- Up to 30 business days of paid leave in any one-year period for the purpose of donating an organ.
- Up to 5 business days of paid leave in any one-year period for the purpose of donating bone marrow.

During the leave for organ/bone marrow donors, the Company will continue to provide and pay for any group health plan benefits the employee was enrolled in prior to the leave of absence. This leave provides job protection and a right to return to work.

Disability Insurance Leave

If you are unable to work for at least eight days due to a non-work-related illness or injury, or a pregnancy-related disability, you may be eligible for disability insurance benefits through California's State Disability Insurance (SDI) program, which is administered by the California Employment Development Department (EDD). Disability insurance provides eligible team members with up to 52 weeks of partial wage replacement benefits. To apply for this benefit, you must provide written notice of the disability, including a doctor's certificate. For more information, contact the EDD (www.edd.ca.gov).

Personal Leave

A personal leave of absence without pay may be granted at the discretion of the Company. Requests for personal leave should be limited to unusual circumstances requiring an absence of longer than two weeks.

Acknowledgment

PLEASE READ THE EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK AND RETURN THIS SIGNED ACKNOWLEDGMENT TO HUMAN RESOURCES.

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Angel Trans LLC Employee Handbook. I understand that I am responsible for reading the Handbook and for knowing and complying with the policies set forth in the Handbook during my employment with the Company.

I further understand, however, that the guidelines contained in the Handbook are guidelines only and are not intended to create any contractual rights or obligations, express or implied, and shall not be construed to create any type of right to a "fair procedure" or any procedure prior to termination or other disciplinary action. I also understand that, except for the Company's at-will employment policy, the Company may amend, interpret, modify, or withdraw any of the provisions of the Handbook at any time, in its sole discretion, with or without notice.

I understand and agree that my relationship with the Company is "at-will," which means that my employment is for no definite period and may be terminated by me or the Company at any time and for any reason, with or without cause or advance notice. I also understand that the Company may demote or otherwise discipline me or otherwise alter the terms and conditions of my employment at any time, at its sole discretion, with or without cause or advance notice.

I understand and agree that the terms of this Acknowledgment may not be modified or superseded except by a written agreement signed by the Owner, that no other employee or representative of the Company has the authority to enter into any such agreement, and that any agreement to employ me for any specified period of time or that otherwise is inconsistent with the terms of this Acknowledgment will be unenforceable unless in writing and signed by the Owner.

Finally, I understand and agree that this Acknowledgment contains a full and complete statement of the agreements and understandings that it recites, that no one has made any promises or commitments to me contrary to the foregoing, and that this Acknowledgment supersedes all previous agreements, whether written or oral, express or implied, relating to the subjects covered in this Acknowledgment.

I have carefully read this Acknowledgment.

Employee's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Employee's Printed Name: _____

Position / Role: _____

Start Date: _____

HR Representative: _____ Date: _____